

INTELLIGENCER JOURNAL/LANCASTER NEW ERA

THURSDAY APRIL 8, 2010

YWCA events

AWARENESS: YWCA of Lancaster Sexual Assault Prevention and Counseling Center is hosting two free public events to raise awareness and honor sexual assault survivors and their loved ones

YWCA's annual Take Back the Night, an open forum for women and men survivors and friends to share their stories and speak out against sexual violence, will be held Tuesday, April 20, 6:30 p.m.

The second event is a Family Violence Resource Network meeting for a discussion on the power of bystanders in the prevention of sexual assault and violence, on Wednesday, April 21, 9:30 a.m. to noon. The keynote speaker will be Katie Taylor, technical assistance coordinator, Pennsylvania Coalition Against Rape.

Both events will be held at the YWCA, 110 N. Lime St.

For more information, call 393-1735 ext. 260.

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca