

SUNDAY NEWS, LANCASTER, PA

OCTOBER 3, 2010

LETTERS TO EDITOR

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Wishing them well

■ Dr. D. Holmes Morton and Caroline Morton, Pennsylvania Academy of Music board chairman and vice chairwoman, respectively, are stellar citizens with all their good works. But in last Sunday's "In My Opinion" article, "Don't blame PAM for reluctance to give elsewhere," it is clear they misread the YWCA's comments from the previous week.

The YWCA did not say that PAM's actions have made our donors reluctant, as the Mortons claim it did. What the YWCA did say, along with another named nonprofit and a named Lancaster-based fundraising consultant (all three quoted in the Sunday News, Sept. 19), is that PAM's action of suing its donors is having an effect on the way we approach people for pledges.

The YWCA wishes PAM well and hopes it overcomes what the Mortons refer to as its "irregularities in accounting and several complex legal problems" so that it can continue to be a wonderful resource for the community.

*John Jascoll
Director of Development and Communications
YWCA Lancaster*

eliminating racism
empowering women

ywca